Climate Failed—Medicine Cured

It has been absolutely shown that rest, fresh air, and good food do help many persons suffering from tuberculosis. But the disease is seldom more than a "rest cure." Something more is needed. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine made for the cure of tuberculosis. It has cured this disease again and again. Often these cures have been effected where the surroundings were not ideal, where no rest was taken of the patient, where good cooking unusual—yet cures resulted. Now we argue and urge that Eckman's Alternative should be used in every case of tuberculosis. In addition to good, nourishing food and fresh air, which we all need.

The facts—the evidence of cures that have been made in interesting reading. A remarkable cure follows—Weldon, Ill. "Gentlemen—Through Eckman's Alternative I have been saved from a premature grave, and feeling that I might benefit suffering humanity, I take pleasure in writing you the history of my sickness, which you are at liberty to use.

"On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Fever. My lungs became very much affected; my sputum was examined and tuberculosis bacilli were found. On February 21st, 1905, I was advised to go to Fort Worth, Texas. While there an abscess in my right lung broke out and discharged. I grew weaker and became very much emaciated. My physician informed me that I must go. I returned home as quickly as possible. I left Texas June 1st, and arrived in Canon City June 31st, very feeble. After being retained home, weighing 105 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive.

"On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Consumption. Today I weigh 155 pounds. I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator. I have not had a cough since. My lungs are well, sleep well, and never feel better. I would be glad if every person afflicted with tuberculosis took Eckman's cure." (Signed Affidavit) ARTHUR WEBB.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. Sale by all leading druggists and Red Cross Pharmacy Barre, Vt.

News has been received of the death of Clarence E. Carruth, a graduate of the medical department of the university of Vermont, Burlington, in the class of 1880, at his home at Coe's N. Dr. Carruth was mayor of the city and was serving his fifth term, having been elected last November on the Republican ticket. He was 59 years old.

Claude Cote, the 14-year-old Burlington boy who was convicted of breaking into the restaurant of Richard Daley a few days ago, and who was placed in the hands of the probation officer, was Monday surrendered at the instigation of the boy's parents and he will spend the remainder of his minority in the industrial school at Vergennes. Cote does not seem to have any sincere desire for reform, and his people have decided that the school is the best place for him.

Supt. D. D. Grout, of the state hospital for the insane at Waterbury, sent out notices Tuesday of the escape of Vite Purciana, who was sentenced to life imprisonment from Rutland for murder, but after serving a few years developed signs of insanity and was removed to Waterbury. The message was followed about 20 minutes later by another to the effect that the man had been discovered hiding in the cellar of the hospital ward.

The Loyal club of White River Junction has received from Mrs. George F. Edmunds a check for $100 to be used in furthering the work of the club, which is four-fold, namely, to assist the veterans Memorial day, to maintain and control the Gates Memorial library, and to act as a village improvement society. Mrs. Edmunds is a great-granddaughter of the late Joseph Marsh, of White River Junction, who was Vermont's first lieutenant-governor. Mrs. Edmunds, with her husband, former Senator Edmunds, now resides in Pasadena, Cal.

To the Socialist of Barre Town: Comrades, you fought a good fight in the Barre Town election. The ballot, when counted, proved the consistency in our voting and also showed class consciousness. We are now a party to reckon with in Barre Town. We will continue to work and spend the propaganda among the people. A little more work on our part and the day is not far distant when Barre Town will send a Socialist representative to the state legislature.

HIGHEST PRAISE FROM EVERYBODY

Everybody's Cyclopaedia which is being distributed by The Times has been fully endorsed throughout the country. It is recognized as authority by educators and enjoys a reputation and distinction rarely if ever accorded any similar work.

Under arrangements with the publishers of this reference work the offer may be withdrawn upon two weeks' notice. It would be impossible for us to give you these books now if the publishers were not satisfied that every set distributed will sell others later at the regular list price.

All classes benefit by this practically free offer. Some were skeptical when the first announcement appeared that a really genuine, modern, $12 Cyclopaedia, scholarly enough to meet the demands of a college professor, yet simple enough to be particularly adapted to the young, could be given away by this paper. At this point doubt and skepticism has been banished forever and Everybody's Cyclopaedia, by reason of its merit, has won its way to the hearts of the people.

One who had a high position in the department of public instruction says the set in the family sitting room, where so often some question needs immediate answer, is invaluable. Another prominent educator said that he was particularly struck with its wide scope, fullness and freshness as to recent discoveries and inventions. A young man preparing for college says he uses it more than any other of his many reference books. All of these opinions are based on the fact that this is a "hurry-up" age and the old-fashioned unwieldy cyclopedias require too much time.

Only six coupons and the small promotion expense amount are required. The same terms apply to mail orders, except that the books will be shipped by express, charges collect.
